The 5th edition of BIOKET, the conference organized by Bioeconomy For Change (B4C), will take place on March 19-21st, 2024 in Reims, France and is organizing QUEST FOR CHANGE STARTUP VILLAGE.

The conference, which gathered about 400 international delegates for the last edition, aims to highlight bio-based process innovations from pilot to early commercial scale (Program 2023).

BIOKET focus on process innovations for biomass conversion using emerging technologies, minimizing waste production and optimizing economics of the overall OPEX.

In this context, BIOKET 2024 wants to give a bright place to a selected number of start-ups implementing their technologies in the bioeconomy world.

Among the BIOKET main's topic:

- Advanced and innovative biomass pretreatment – Physical and thermochemical pretreatment – Densification - Fractionation
- Technologies for biomass conversion and functionalization
- Extraction, separation, and purification of biomass
- Process modelisation and analytical methods and tools - in situ characterization technics
- Innovative tools: Enzymatic and metabolic engineering, synthetic biology and bio nanotechnology
- Design of bioprocesses, advanced fermentation

Seize your opportunity today to integrate our village and meet your would-be partners and potential investors!

Advantages of the Quest for change start up village*:

- One (1) free delegate pass for the 3 days (March 19, 20, 21st) with a fixed reduced price of 175€ for pitchers (B4C members) and 200€ (For non-B4C members), before 20% Tax.
